

Watch the Smiles Grow when you start to bake with Golden Sheaf Flour

It won't take the folks at home long to notice the difference when you start to use Golden Sheaf Flour for your bakings. For Golden Sheaf is known far and wide as the perfect flour. It's the finest flour you ever used—bar none. And when you use it, you can be mighty sure that bread, cakes, pies or whatever you're making will be perfect.

No wonder, though, for the Golden Sheaf Flour is made of the finest wheat grown in the country. Made by millers that have been in the business over a half a century. They even go to the expense of washing the wheat to make sure that Golden Sheaf will be pure flour. No other miller thinks it's worth while to do that—but then, no other flour is even half as good as Golden Sheaf.

Try just one sack. See how much better your bakings are. We'll return the full price if you don't say Golden Sheaf is the finest flour made. We take the risk of your not liking it.

1,000 Cars Of Peaches.
(From the West Plains Gazette.)
Everywhere in the peach growing districts of Howell and Oregon counties there is a great activity in preparing to handle the biggest crop ever known. Orchard owners realize the fact that they, like the army general, must prepare for war in time of peace. New packing sheds have been erected, thousands of baskets and materials ordered and arrangements made to organize the vast armies of pickers and packers that will be required to handle the crop.

One thousand cars! Just think of it. Enough peaches to supply an empire will be shipped from two counties in Missouri this year. And prices are going to be good. Word has been received that there will be a short crop in north Georgia, which produces the only peaches that compete with the Southern Missouri markets. In 1911 many growers of Howell county averaged over $1,800 net per acre, and some orchards made as much as $500 per acre profit from their crop. This year's crop, which is excellent in quality as well as quantity, should bring equally as good profits.

At Brandville and Koshkonong labor bureaus will be maintained and in this manner the labor will be distributed over the district and very little of the crop lost. In 1911 many peaches rotted on the trees because there were no pickers to handle the fruit, some orchards had more labor than necessary. After the pickers finish work at Koshkonong and Brandville they migrate northward like the birds and there is no trouble among orchard men around Olden, Pomona and Willow Springs to secure sufficient pickers and packers to handle the crop.

Realizing the fact it will require much attention and equipment to handle this big peach crop, the Frisco Railroad is making big preparations at Brandville and Koshkonong and other points. Superintendent Balzell has a force of men putting in switches to all the packing sheds so the fruit can be loaded direct in refrigerator cars. The side tracks at Brandville and Koshkonong have been enlarged and a switch engine will be kept busy setting cars for the accommodation the fruit men. The Frisco expects to handle four trains of peaches daily out of Howell and Oregon counties during the season.

There is an association at Brandville and Koshkonong which will protect the growers and handle the crop. The members of this association recently estimated they would have 375 cars of peaches. There are two large orchards at Brandville outside of the association that will ship at least 170 cars, making the total 905 cars. The Olden Fruit Company and Chickasaw Orchards at Olden will ship 100 cars and West Plains, Pomona, Willow Springs, Burnham and Mountain View will swell the total output far above the 1,000 car mark, an estimate conservatively made.

The Situation at Crystal City.

The eight hour law applicable to Plate Glass Factories is causing trouble at Crystal City. Monday afternoon quite a large number of workmen quit after having worked eight hours and there have been accessions at the end of each eight-hour period. It is said that the majority of the men were informed and believed that they were subject to the same penalties prescribed for the employer and that many quit because of this impression.

The officials of the Company claim that they cannot operate the plant under the eight-hour law and compete with plants in other states which are unhampered by an eight-hour law. The best of feeling seems to exist between the management and men and it is to be hoped that some sensible counsel will prevail and that all difficulties will be adjusted. Conferences are being held between the men and Superintendent Taylor. The general opinion prevails that the whole matter will be definitely settled this week. The factory is still running, and now there seems to be no likelihood of a shut down which would be a misfortune not only to the people at Festus and Crystal City, but to the whole country.—Jefferson County Record.

In Memoriam.

Effie Goff, beloved wife of Smith T. Goff, passed into the Life Eternal on the morning of May 28th, 1913, at the age of 40 years and 14 days.

She was the daughter of George W. and Alzona Englewood, of Blackwell, Mo., who, with an older brother, preceded her to the better world. The surviving members of her immediate family, beside her husband, are George, Higginbotham, Burris, Ode and B. J. Englewood, Meadames Heale Cole and Hattie Williams.

Though for many years in ill health, at times suffering intensely, she remained cheerful and hopeful, ever having the welfare and pleasure of those about her at heart. Truly, those who knew her best loved her most, and we, to whom she was nearest and dearest, realize there is left in our hearts a void that can never be filled, except by the love of Him whom she steadfastly trusted.

Having lived a consistent Christian life she met the inevitable calmly and unafraid, and made, as far as possible, all preparations for the last sad rites. The funeral services were impressively conducted by her pastor, Rev. Chapman, and the Blackwell Chapter Order of the Eastern Star, of which she had long been a loyal member.

Amid the beautiful floral tributes, and surrounded by a large concourse of relatives and friends, she was laid to rest in the family cemetery at Festus, Mo.

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, 'Because they rest', because their toil is o'er. The voice of weeping shall be heard no more in the Eternal City, neither dying, nor pain, sickness nor sorrow, neither crying. For God shall wipe away all tears. Rest! rest!"

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
